

House Resolution No. 1278

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives take tremendous pleasure in acknowledging milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State young women who have admirably dedicated themselves to exceptional participation in the Girl Scouts of America program with its emphasis on maturation and growth as a person, citizen, and leader; and

Whereas, Amy Zieber of Girl Scout Troop 183 has earned the highest achievement award in Girl Scouting, the Gold Award, which will be presented to her during an awards ceremony on March 29, 2008, at the First Baptist Church of Raytown in Raytown, Missouri; and

Whereas, officially designated in 1980 as the highest award in Girl Scouting, the Gold Award is attained by only about five thousand Girl Scouts annually; and

Whereas, Amy Zieber fulfilled all of the diverse requirements for her Gold Award, including the Gold Award Project, which consisted of planning and implementing Cookie Rallies designed to teach scouts about the importance of girl scout cookie sales and to teach younger scouts about selling cookies safely; and

Whereas, in her twelve years in scouting, Amy Zieber has earned the thirty-four patches and the Silver Award and has traveled with her fellow scouts to London, Paris, and Barcelona, with another trip planned for Australia and New Zealand this summer; and

Whereas, Amy Zieber's other scouting activities include serving as a counselor at Camp Woodland in Albany, Missouri, for the last two years, and she will again be working at Camp Prairie Schooner this summer; and

Whereas, Amy Zieber has earned a Career Exploration Pin, Cadette and Senior Leadership Pins, From Dreams to Reality Award, Program Aid Pin and Patch, Cadette and Senior Counselor in Training Pin and Patch, and Leader in Training Pin:
